

I am completely against the proposal to lift the ban on Cross-Ownership. You have a responsibility to the people of this country to represent all voices, not just the wealthy who can afford a media conglomerate. By lifting this ban you are in-effect functioning as a facilitator towards geographical monopolization of media markets, an illegal undertaking. I know that the new administration wouldn't want to come off as being monopoly friendly, as it seriously hinders competition in markets. Isn't Bush against that (as well as the fundamentals of capitalism)?
